Foreword

In order that the 1954-55 school year may remain as vividly in your memory as the thrill of a great parade, the senior class presents the PARADE edition of the

Appalachian

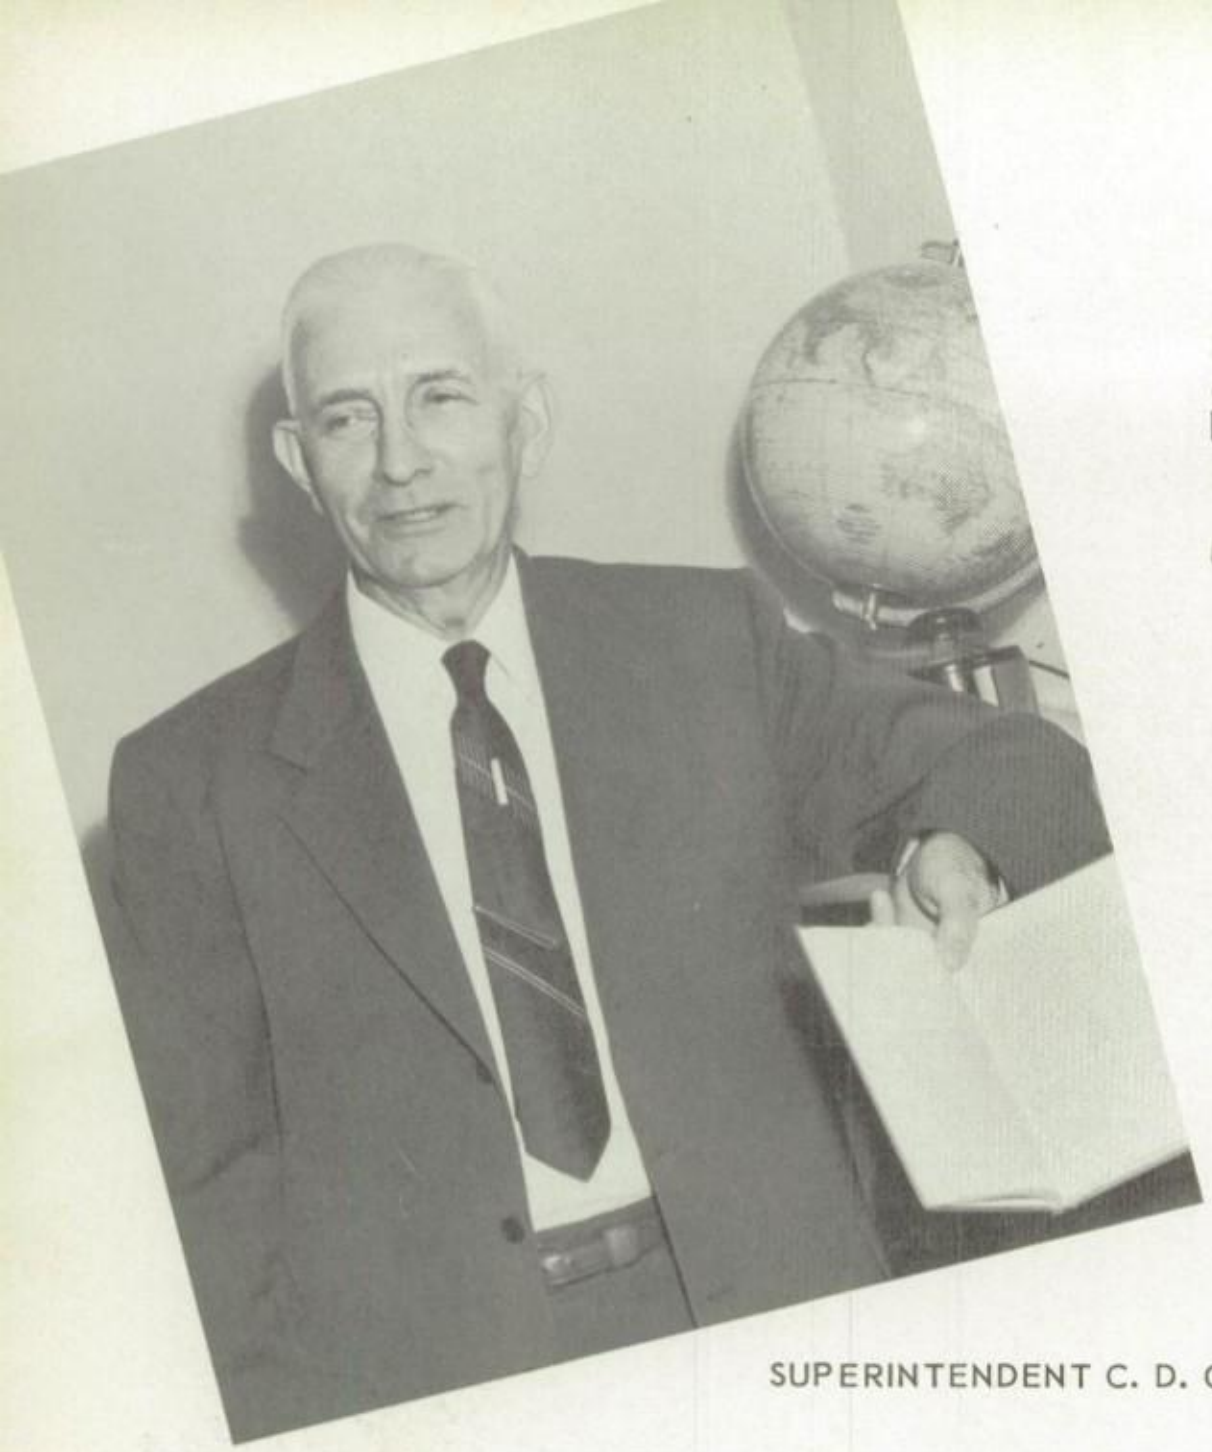
Strike up the band!

Jack Connell

Dedication

To lead our Parade the senior class has chosen Jack Connell, director of music. He has been with us throughout our four years of high school; he has not only been a grand teacher, but also a friend to all.

Forward, march! "Papa Jack!"



SUPERINTENDENT C. D. CURTIS

Through all our years prior to this one, Superintendent C. D. Curtis has led us capably as principal; and in recent years he has directed our parade of progress as superintendent.

Thanks for keeping our ranks in order, Mr. Curtis.

Grand Marshal of the Parade

Mrs. K. H. Rueter and Mrs. Jack Johnson work behind the scenes to help keep our parade progressing.

Principal J. P. Stewart

The Parade Master

In previous years, Mr. Stewart has served as assistant principal. This year, for the first time, he has very efficiently filled the position of principal. Blow your whistle, Mr. Stewart, and let's begin.

I chose business training because there are always opportunities for work wherever you may go.

I chose Knoxville Business College because the equipment is modern and because they have the lecture method of teaching.
